

HEIDI'S FIELD GUIDE

"YOU NEED TO BE MORE STRATEGIC"

The least actionable sentence in management.

Meetings suck. I don't.

01

“Be more strategic”

Two words that describe nothing, can’t be measured, and can’t be argued with.

HEIDI SAYS

Nobody has ever explained what that means. Ask for one example. Watch what happens.

WHAT YOU HEAR

“Think bigger picture”

WHAT IT ACTUALLY MEANS

I want you to be different in a way I haven’t defined.

HEIDI SAYS

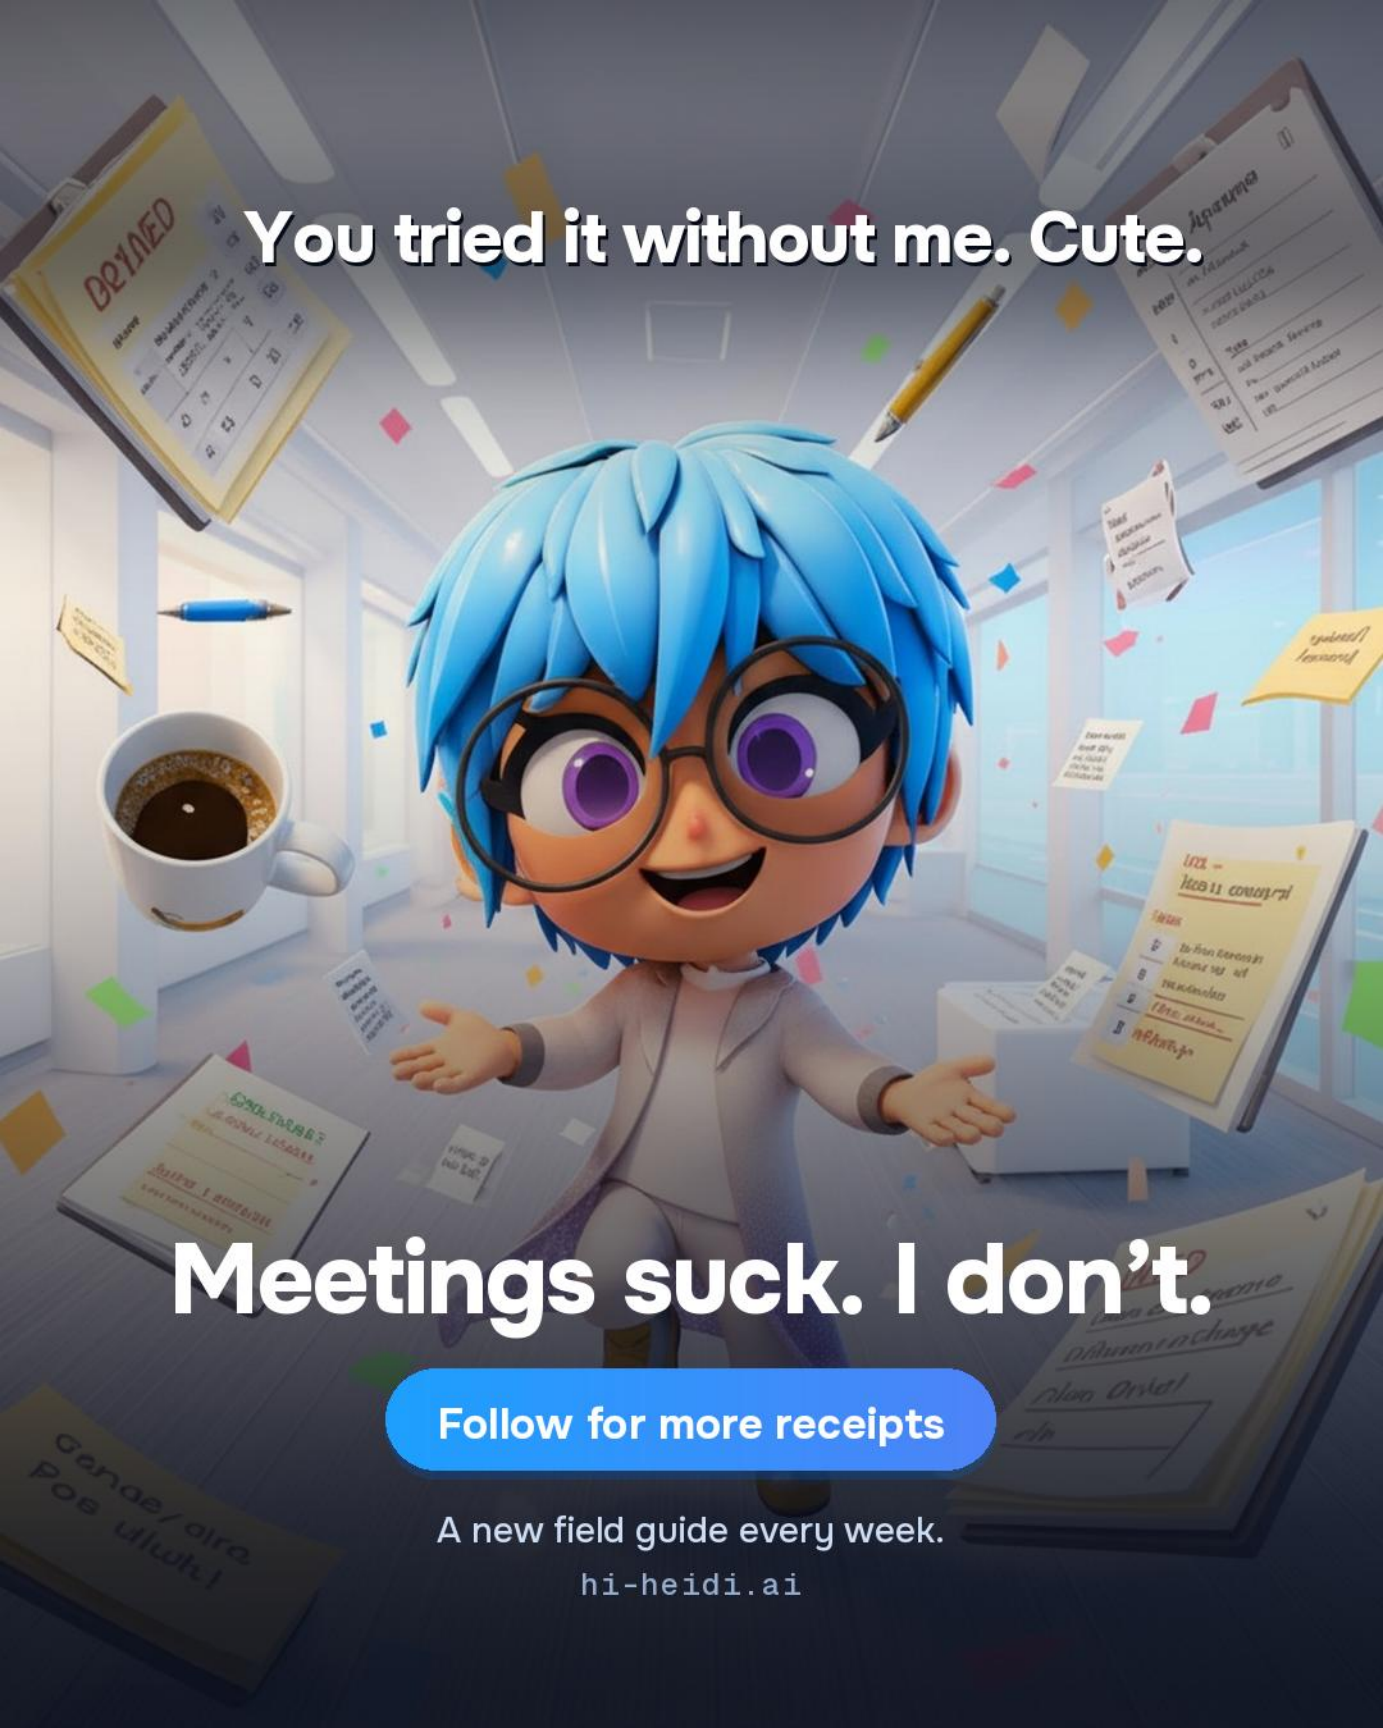

Vague feedback isn’t kindness. It’s the absence of the work required to be specific.

If it can’t be shown, it can’t be improved.

HEIDI SAYS

I show you exactly how you ran each meeting. Specific beats strategic every time.

You tried it without me. Cute.
