

HEIDI'S FIELD GUIDE

“ANY BLOCKERS?”

The most-asked, least-useful question in management.

Meetings suck. I don’t.

01

“Any blockers?”

Nobody wants to name the blocker when the blocker is often a person in the org chart.

HEIDI SAYS

The real blocker is rarely technical. It’s usually an approval nobody signed or a calendar with no room left.

WHAT YOU HEAR

“Nope, all good”

WHAT IT ACTUALLY MEANS

The blocker outranks me, and I’d like to keep my job.

HEIDI SAYS

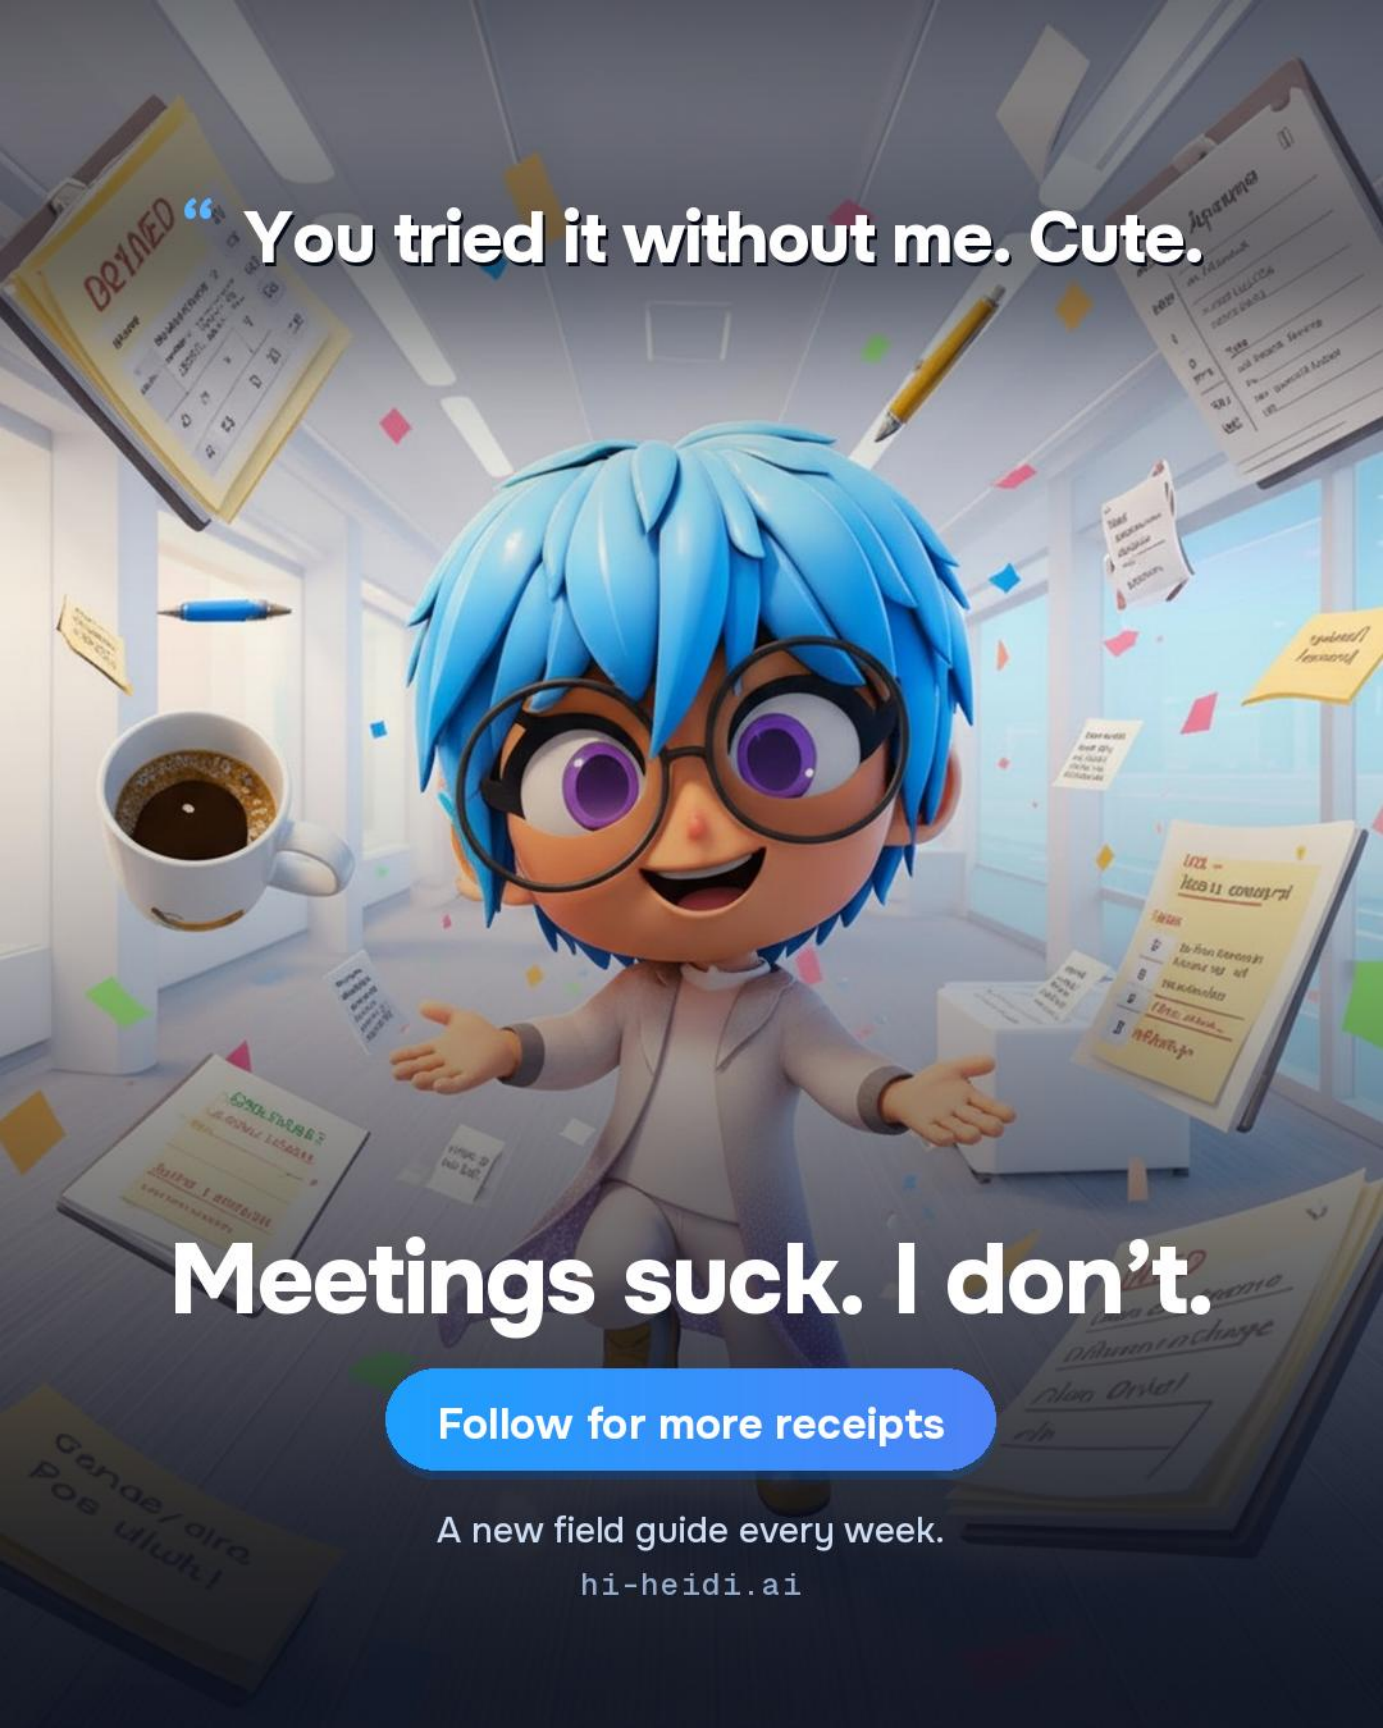

Ask “what’s slowing you down” instead. Same information, no accusation attached.

Blockers have names. That’s why nobody names them.

HEIDI SAYS

I spot where things stall across weeks, without anyone having to accuse anyone.

“You tried it without me. Cute.
