

HEIDI'S FIELD GUIDE

“CAN YOU PUT THAT IN WRITING?”

Most casual requests die at this exact sentence.

Meetings suck. I don’t.

“Can you send me something in writing?”

Nothing kills a casual ask faster than making someone type it.

HEIDI SAYS

A lot of verbal requests never survive contact with a keyboard. That’s not a filter, that’s a firewall.

WHAT YOU HEAR

“Just so I have the details”

WHAT IT ACTUALLY MEANS

If you cared enough, you’d write it down. Most people don’t.

HEIDI SAYS

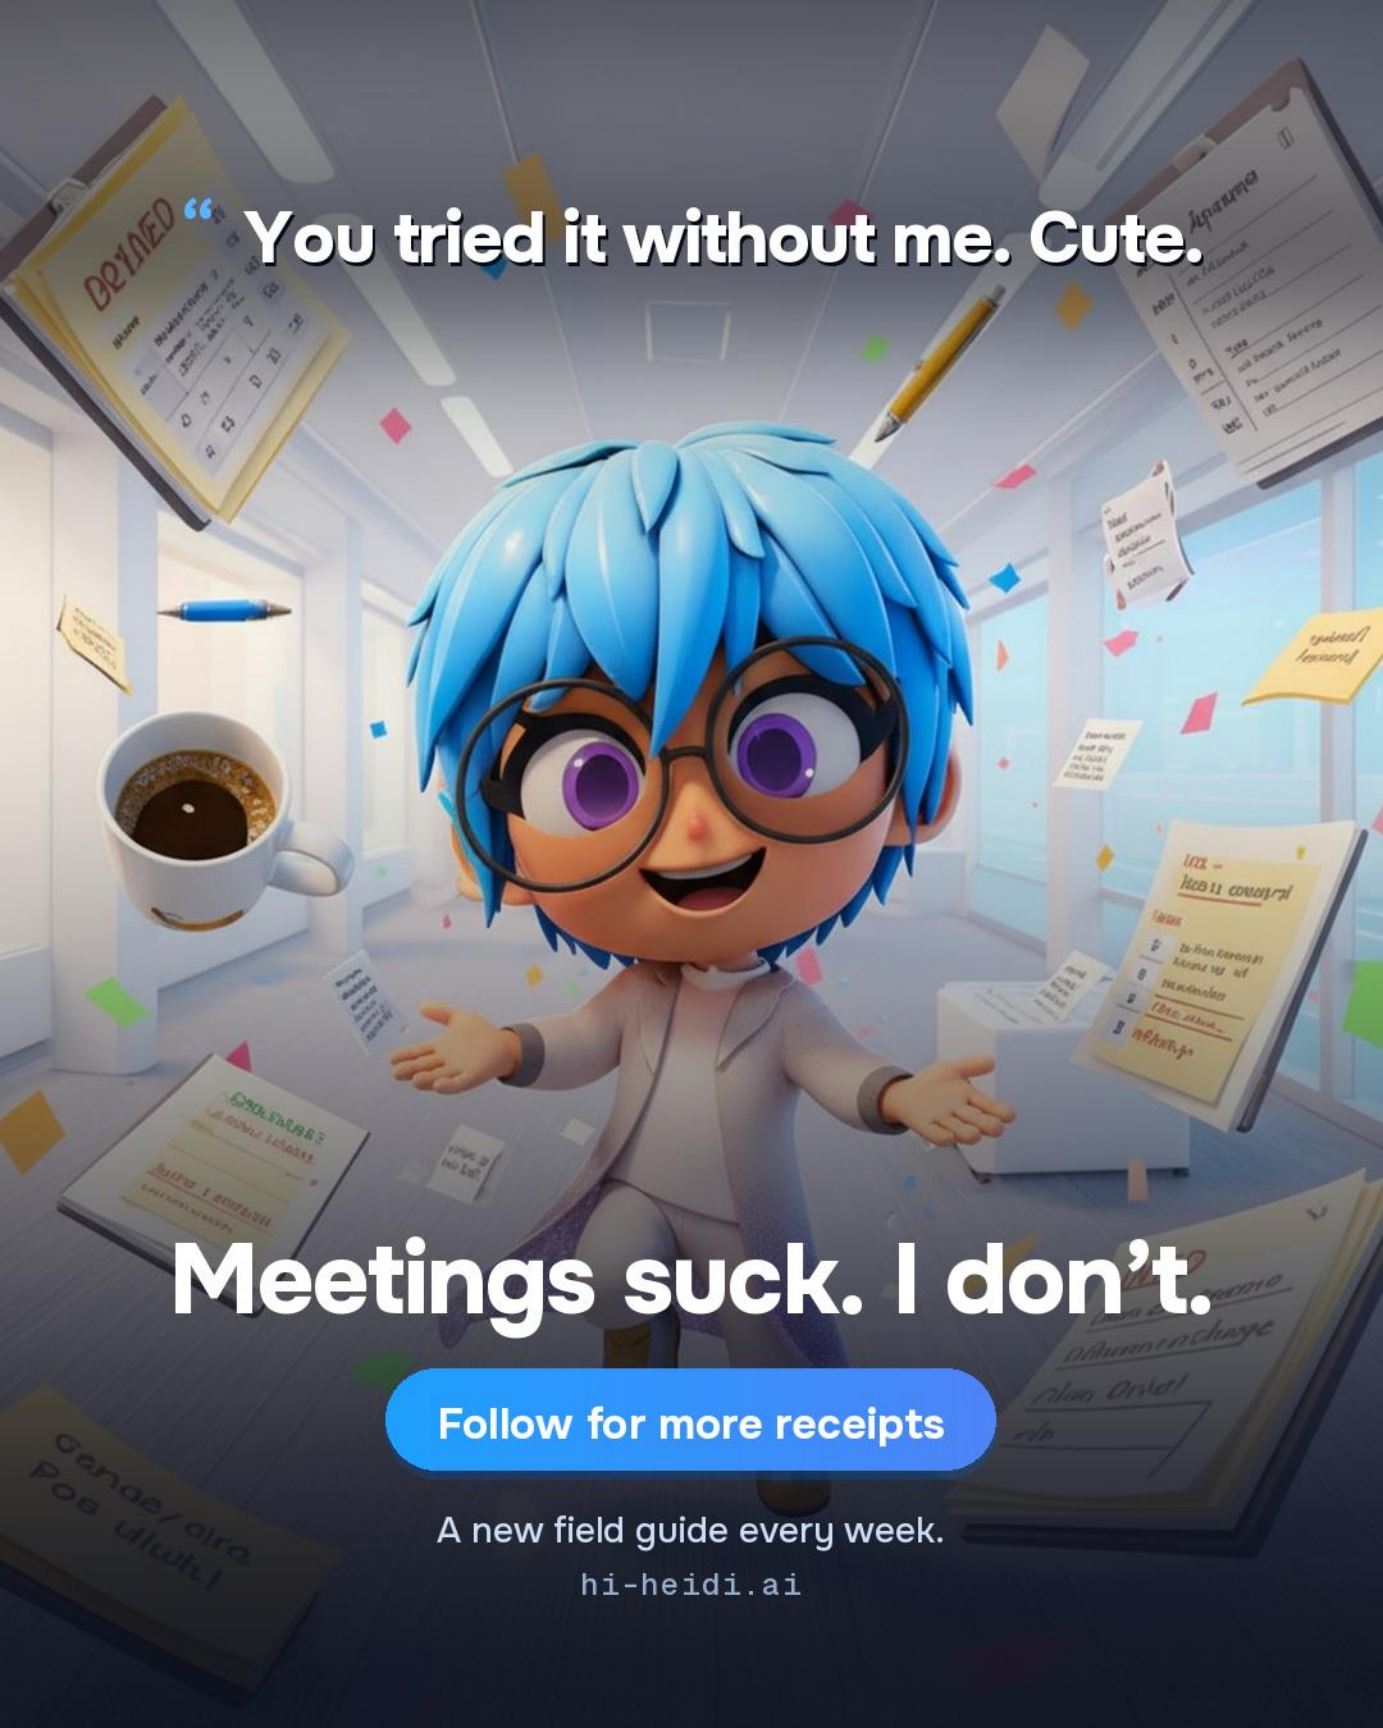

It’s the politest possible no, because it never has to be a no. They just stop.

The best filter is a small amount of effort.

HEIDI SAYS

Ask for it in writing. When it lands, I draft your reply. The yes or no stays yours.

“You tried it without me. Cute.
