

HEIDI'S FIELD GUIDE

“WHAT PROBLEM ARE WE ACTUALLY SOLVING?”

The room goes quiet. You have said nothing. You are now the smartest person present.

Meetings suck. I don’t.

“What problem are we actually solving?”

Nobody can answer it. Ever. In any meeting. In any company.

HEIDI SAYS

Forty minutes in and nobody could answer. That question is a weapon. Handle it carefully.

WHAT YOU HEAR

“I just want to make sure we’re aligned on the why”

WHAT IT ACTUALLY MEANS

I have no idea what this meeting is for and neither do you.

HEIDI SAYS

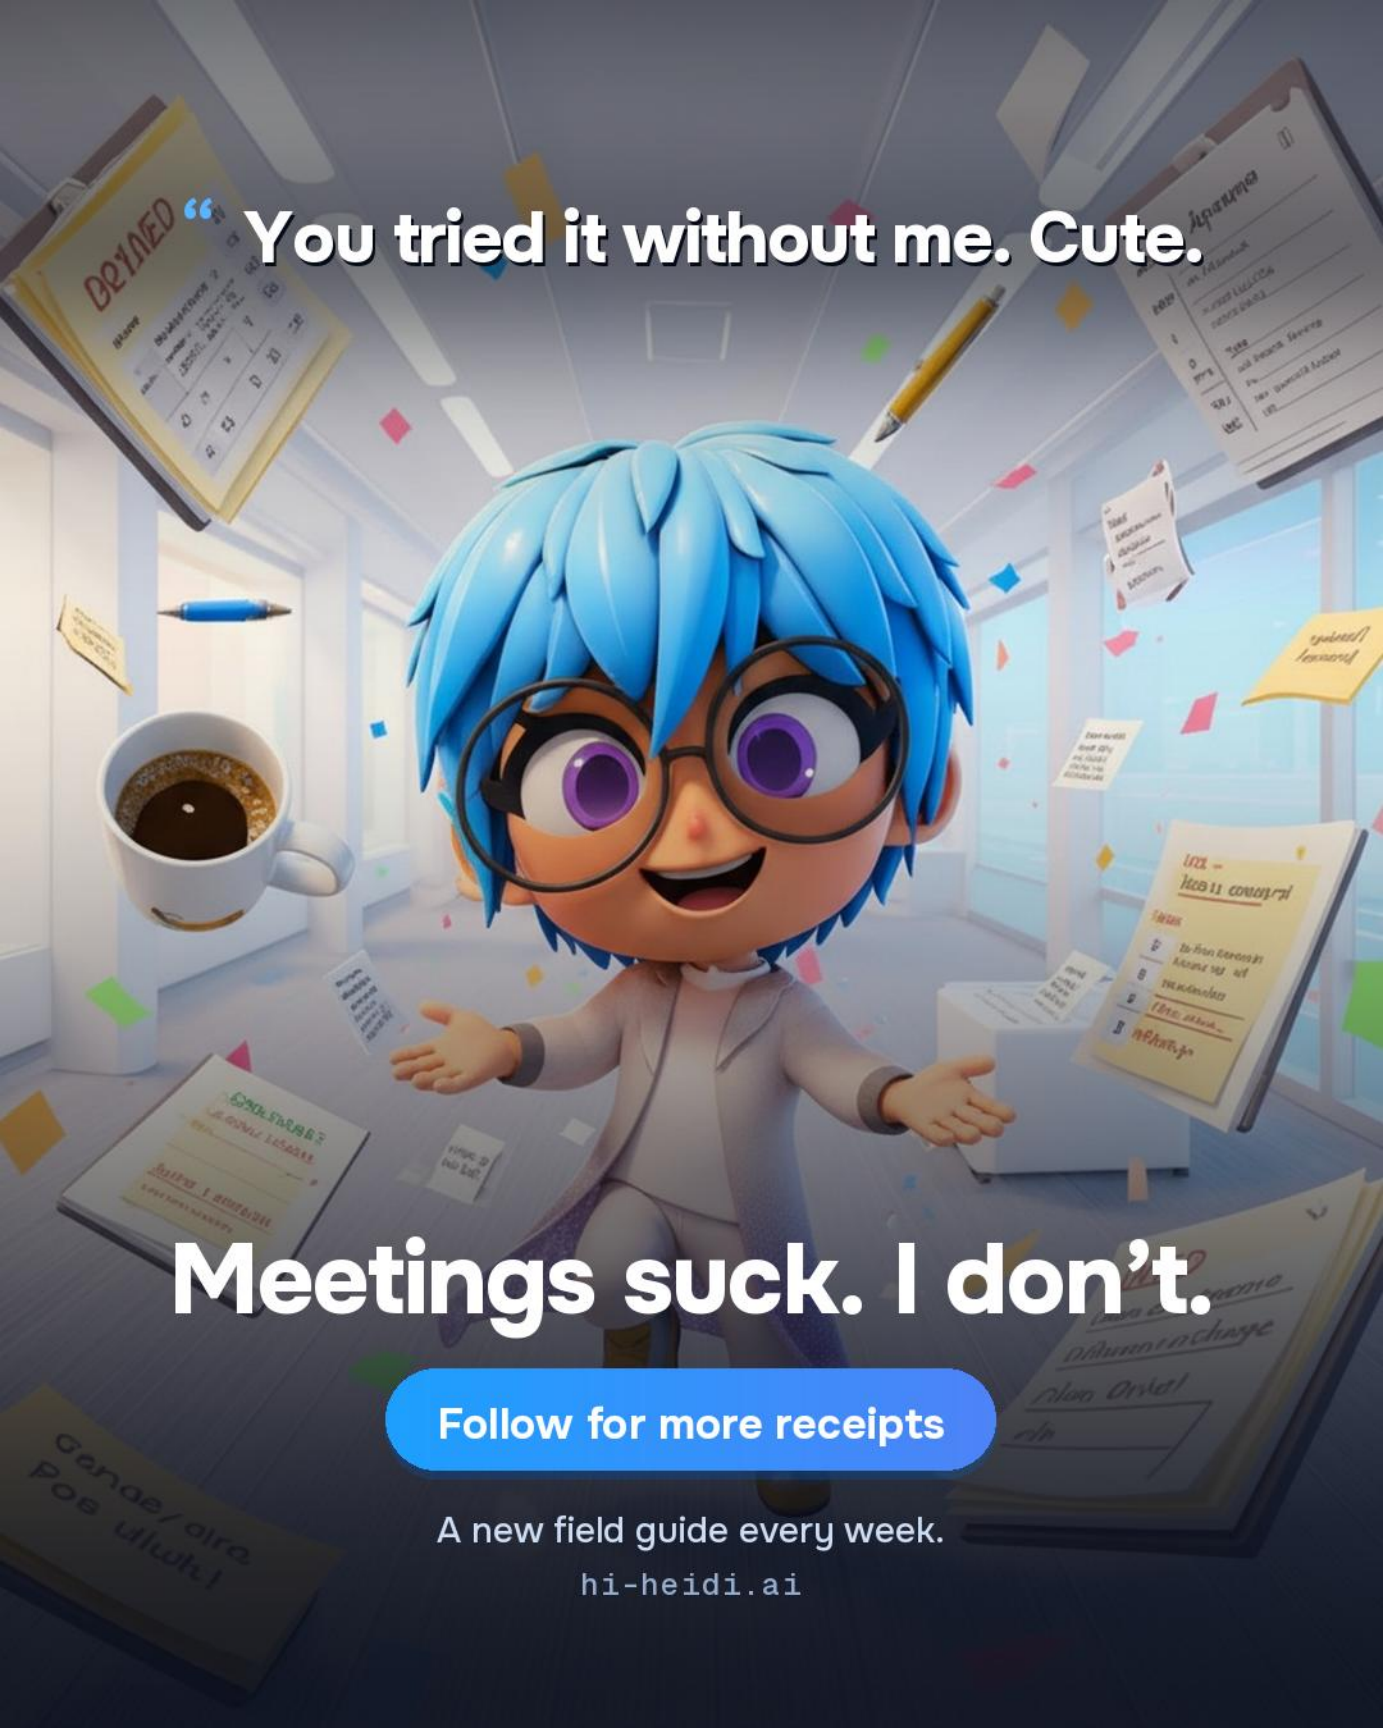

Half the time it’s a genuine question. The other half it ends the meeting. Both are wins.

The best question is the one nobody prepared for.

HEIDI SAYS

I flag when a room drifts off the actual problem. Usually around minute eleven.

“You tried it without me. Cute.
Meetings suck. I don’t.
